Poem By wasif (Y7)

Pokemon

*From Mewto to Charizard,
To the endless trading cards,
To detailed magna books,
|But what about the looks?
Could it be tropical birds in disguise ,*

*Or an elephant that is wise?
Look around at the things you see,
They may not be,
What they seem,
Or could it be a dream?*

Quote of the

*Believe in yourself.
You are braver than you think,
more talented than you know,
and capable of more than you imagine.*

A book review by Amera (Y6)

Horrid Henry robs the bank

I like this book because it has really good humor. The characters are also very funny because of their personality. The second reason I like it is because it has got 4 stories, and there is one story in each chapter. I think anyone could read this book because it is very funny. I also like it because, in Horrid Henry's house, they are just like a stereotypical family, especially because Henry and Peter are always arguing.

In chapter 4m when Horrid Henry is trying to win the board game, its funny how him and Margaret always argue over everything and how Henry tricked Peter so that he could get the good dragon. If I was to rate.....

If you fail to plan you are planning to fail.

Planning is a life skill to get the most out of our time and to do tasks more efficiently, so it should apply to our studies as well right? Suppose you have a puzzle that want to complete.

Book of the month

Captain Cat and the Treasure Map by Sue Mongredien

Treasure, tropical islands, shivering timbers – everyone loves a pirate story and this one is particularly fun, especially for newly confident readers. The crew of the Golden Earring are a rum bunch, especially grumpy Captain Hali-but most of all this book is great!
